

King William County Public Notice

The King William County Planning Commission will hold a Public Information Meeting on Thursday, May 24, 2012 at 7:00P.M. in the King William County Administration Building Board Room at 180 Horse Landing Road, King William, VA, to consider the following matter.

The King William County Planning Commission is currently in the process of reviewing and updating the County's Comprehensive Plan. As a part of the Comprehensive Plan, the County is also required to develop a transportation plan that designates a system of transportation infrastructure needs and recommendations that support the planned development of the County and shall include, but not be limited to, roadways, bicycle accommodations, pedestrian accommodations, railways, bridges, waterways, airports, ports, and public transportation facilities. The Commission is seeking comments, suggestions and recommendations from the public for development of this transportation plan.

Anyone having an interest in this matter is invited to provide public hearing testimony before the Planning Commission. Written testimony also will be accepted prior to the hearing, which may be directed to Scott Lucchesi, Director of Community Development. All records pertaining to this matter are available for review during regular business hours (8:30A.M.-4:30P.M.) in the Planning Department, located in the County Administration Building at 180 Horse Landing Road, King William, VA 23086.
