King William County Boards / Commissions / Committees

Brief Descriptions – Full duties, rules, etc. are contained in each entity's bylaws.

Board of Zoning Appeals (BZA): Has appellate jurisdiction over application for variances from the terms of zoning ordinance, over questions regarding district boundaries, from any decision of the zoning administrator, and over any order, requirement, decision, or determination made by any other administrative officer in the administration or enforcement of the zoning ordinance. Members are appointed by the King William County Circuit Court Judge on recommendation by the Board of Supervisors, are required to take oath of office before assuming position and with subsequent reappointments, and must file the appropriate Conflict of Interest form with the Clerk of the Board of Supervisors upon appointment and as required thereafter. Meetings are held on the third Wednesday of every other month. The term of appointment is five years.

Economic Development Authority (EDA): Function is to promote the orderly economic growth of King William without detriment to the County's natural environment and in a manner consistent with the direction provided by the Board of Supervisors in the County's Land Use Plan and Ordinance. Members are appointed by the Board of Supervisors, are required to take oath of office before assuming position and with subsequent reappointments, and must file the appropriate Conflict of Interest form with the Clerk of the Board of Supervisors upon appointment and annually thereafter. Meetings are held on the second Wednesday of each month. The term of appointment is four years.

Electoral Board: Composed of three members appointed by the county Circuit Court judges (§24.2-106 of the Code of Virginia). Duties of the Electoral Board include appointing the General Registrar/Director of Elections to a 4-year term; appointing Officers of Election; overseeing elections; and reporting results to the State Board of Elections. The term of appointment is three years.

Finance Board: Consists of the Chairman of the governing body of the county, the Treasurer of the county, and a citizen of the county of proven integrity and business ability. The citizen member is appointed by the County Circuit Court. The term of the citizen member appointment is four years, but the Circuit Court may remove for cause any such member and appoint another qualified citizen for the unexpired portion of the term.

Historic Preservation & Architectural Review Board (HPARB): Reviews and makes advisory recommendations on all applications for conditional use permits, special exceptions, and variances proposed within a historic preservation district; and may propose the establishment of additional historic preservation districts and revisions to existing historic preservation districts. Appointments are made by the Board of Supervisors, meetings are held as needed, and the term of appointment is five years.

Local Board of Building Code Appeals (LBBCA): In accordance with Section 36-105 of the Code of Virginia, there shall be established within each local building department a LBBCA. Members are appointed by the Board of Supervisors. Meetings are held as needed and the term of appointment is five years.

Planning Commission: Serves in an advisory capacity to the Board of Supervisors by preparing plans, ordinances, and other documents and carrying out all activities as designated by the Board. The Commission also approves, amends and approves, or disapproves the Comprehensive Plan in accord with the provisions of §15.2- 2225 of the Code of Virginia. Appointments, successors, and vacancies are filled by the Board of Supervisors. Meetings are held on the first Tuesday of each month and the term of appointment is four years.

Recreation Commission: Serves as the advisory body to the Board of Supervisors and liaison between the Recreation Director and the Board of Supervisors in matters affecting recreation policies, programs, personnel, finances, and the acquisition and disposal of lands and properties related to the total community recreation program, and to its long-range, projected recreation program. Meets the first Thursday of each month and the term of appointment is two years for new members and three years for members serving their second or subsequent term.

Social Services Advisory Board: Interests itself in all matters pertaining to King William's public assistance and social services needs; monitors the formulation and implementation of public assistance and social services programs; meets with County Administrator at least four times a year for the purpose of making recommendations on policy matters; makes an annual report to the Board of Supervisors, concurrent with the DSS budget presentation, concerning the administration of DSS programs; and submits to the Board of Supervisors, from time to time, other reports that the advisory board deems appropriate. Meets at least bi-monthly. Appointed initially for terms of from one to four years so as to provide for the balanced overlapping of the terms of the membership; thereafter, terms are for four years with a maximum of two consecutive terms. (Code of Virginia §63.2-305)

Wetlands Board: Preserves and prevents the despoliation and destruction of wetlands within its jurisdiction while accommodating necessary economic development in a manner consistent with wetlands preservation. Members are appointed by the Board of Supervisors for five-year terms and according to §28.2-1303 of the Code of Virginia. Meetings are held as needed and all hearings are advertised in advance.
